HALE TALKS TO MEETING OF Y. M. AND Y. W. TODAY

Spoke on "Mysteries" at the State Teachers College This Morning —Sang Y. W. Song

The Rev. Louis M. Hale made a talk to a joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. at the State Teachers College this morning. The subject of the talk was "Mysteries."

Mr. Hale based his talk on the following verse:

"Two men looked from behind prison bars,
One saw the mud, and the other saw stars."

Of course the seeing of stars does not mean what is usually meant when you say that a person saw stars but it meant that one had sinned and looked down and the other had sinned and looked upward.

After the talk the meeting was lead in the singing of the national Y. W. song, "Follow the Gleam." The singing was lead by Miss Marie Cloud.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEN WILL MEET IN ARMORY

Plans to Meet Tomorrow Night in Tourist Park Changed on Account of Weather.

The meeting of the men of the First Christian Churches of Nodaway County, scheduled for tomorrow night at the Tourist Park has been changed and will be held at the Armory instead. This change was made by the uncertainty of the weather and it was thought inadvisable to put up the tent at the park.

The Rev. R. E. Snodgrass today reports that the ticket sale in the different county churches is going fine and that if the weather is good and the roads all right they will reach the quota of 500 men. The barbecue and feed will be held just the same in the Armory, but plans have been made to cook the food elsewhere. W. K. James of St. Joseph and some local men are to be on the program for talks.

Mrs. E. L. Middleton of Mt. Ayr, Iowa, is in the St. Francis hospital this morning with an injured shoulder and four ribs torn loose from her spine as a result of fast driving.

Last night she and her husband and two other people were driving north of Pickering. They were going at a rate of about forty miles an hour when they came to a corner. Mr. Middleton, who was driving said that he was not aware that the corner was there and when he endeavored to turn the car skidded into the ditch, breaking two wheels and throwing all of the occupants, with the exception of the driver, out. Mrs. Middleton was thrown against a post and suffered the injuries mentioned above.

Mrs. Middleton was brought to the St. Francis hospital in Maryville. She is suffering a great deal but is in no danger. The other occupants of the car were not hurt severely.

ST. JOSEPH IS SPLIT BY KLAN

DEMAND FOR POLICE CHANGE TO HYDE STIRS CITY

SIGNED BY 13,000 PEOPLE

Police Commissioners, Whose Resignations Are Sought, Refuse to Quit and Trouble Is Feared

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 31.—The petition of the St. Joseph people demanding that Governor Hyde remove the police board of that city is this afternoon "Status Quo," in the goeernor's vault awaiting his return to the city.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 31.—Conservative old St. Joseph, third city in the state, never was stirred as now by the fight by the Ku Klux Klan to force Governor Hyde to remove his three commissioners.

Carried away by the wave of indignation at the killing of 14-year-old Nellie Margaret Hale, ten days ago, by a policeman's bullet, many citizens outside the klan believe that the commissioners have said they will not resign, unless, perhaps their resignation is requested by the governor. The saner citizens, the business men, are awaiting with some misgiving to see what will happen if the wrath of the klan is not appeased.

Representatives of the klan, with three relatives of persons killed within recent months by police bullets, were in Jefferson City yesterday to present the governor petitions signed by more than thirteen thousand citizens. The petitions were started at a klan mass meeting one week ago last Saturday at Smith park, when the speakers said: "Let's nail the commissioner's hides on the fence." Following that more petitions were circulated in the business sections, charging that "the constitutional rights of our people are being trampled under foot."

"What if the Governor refused to remove the commissioners?" is being asked now by some of the business men. Hints that tar and feathers might be used have been heard on the streets, and one of the police commissioners admitted today, "it is a possibility."

The representative of a civic organization, fearing that St. Joseph business might receive a black eye from prolonged agitation by the police, and possibly violence, said that many business men believed Hyde should remove the commissioners. The speaker, while not directly admitting a fear of the powerful klan organization with its five thousand members, pointed to the threatened trade boycotts again Kansas City when that city had a reputa-

MOTHER OF DR. C. D. KOCH DIES IN ST. JOE SUNDAY

Funeral Services Held in St. Joseph Today—Burial at Clinton, Louisiana

Mrs. Elizabeth Koch, mother of Dr. C. D. Koch of Maryville, died at 11 o'clock Sunday night in a St. Joseph hospital. The funeral service was conducted at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the home of another son, John W. Koch in St. Joseph. The body will be shipped to Clinton, Louisiana, the former home of Mrs. Koch, for burial. Dr. Koch was unable to go to St. Joseph for the funeral because of illness.

Mrs. Koch, who was 85 years old, was born in Germany and immigrated to the United States in 1857. She was married to Christian Mochle and of this union there are a number of children. Mr. Mochle was killed in battle near the close of the Civil War, and in 1868 Mrs. Mochle was married to Gerard Koch, who died in 1897. There are eight surviving children of the second union. NO POLITICS IN CATHOLIC CHURCH

SAYS REV. FATHER FELIX LAST NIGHT

UNCHRISTIAN TO DO SO

Politics Have Never Been Mentioned In Maryville Catholic Churches For 25 Years

"We Catholics believe it unchristian to bring politics into the church. You could have attended the St. Patrick's or St. Mary's Church in Maryville for the past twenty-five years and never once would you have heard politics mentioned from the pulpit. You could attend either of these churches for the next twenty-five years and never hear it mentioned."

Such is the policy of the Catholic Church as stated last night by the Rev. Father Richard Felix of Conception speaking last night before the Chamber of Commerce upon "Community Co-operation."

As Father Felix progressed in h talk on "Community Co-operation," he said that it has been reported that there is an organization in the county which is diametrically opposed to co-operation and the spirit of progress for which the Chamber of Commerce was working.

"From what I have read of the literature of the Ku Klux Klan, I understand that they are standing for the maintainence of law and order, and bitter avowal against the Jews, negros and Catholics and denying that they have the fullest Patriotism to our country," added Father Felix. "In regard to the first point let me say that we have, thank God, an efficient corp of officers in our land for the maintainence of order and enforcement of the law. So I think it entirely unnecessary for any organization to usurp such law enforcement authority as is not given to them.

"For the Jews let me say that it is a feeling of envy for their success in business; for the Negros, they are law-abiding and they are deserving of pity rather than oppression and condemnation. For the Catholics we belie by our lives any association that questions our patriotism and loyalty, and that has an intentioned avowal against us."

"Can our patriotism be questioned when our boys fought so bravely during the war and died for the flag? Over at Conception we have eight of our boys who made the supreme sacrifice willingly and gladly for their country."

Father Felix gave four points as characteristic and necessary for the best success of community co-operation and progress. These were: a spirit of friendliness, kindness, and mutual co-operation; proper leadership with men of vision; the fanning of local pride and patriotism into a flame to make active members; and a constructive program. He said that we were blessed by having in the Chamber such an organization and men qualified for leaders, and that by continued co-operation we could build a spirit here that would put the world to shame.

About sixty members of the Chamber were present at last night's luncheon.

S. G. Gillam went to St. Joseph this morning on business.

CHILD IS KILLED BY WAGON WHEEL

SON OF CHARLES DUCKWORTH'S OF CLEARMONT.

HEAD CRUSHED BY WHEEL

And Died Enroute to Hospital—His Father's Mother Also Dies Today.

Charles Duckworth, about three years old, only child of Mr. and Mrs. James Duckworth, living five miles east of Clearmont, died yesterday afternoon while being brought to St. Francis hospital after being run over by the wheel of a wagon. The parents of the child were helping shuck corn on the farm of Mrs. Ann Dew, southeast of Clearmont, and had taken the little boy out of the wagon. The horses started up when the child stumbled and fell and the wheel of the wagon passed over his head, crushing it badly. The accident occurred about 2 o'clock and immediately afterwards the parents started to Maryville with the boy. Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Duckworth home conducted by the Rev. E. R. Ingram, pastor of the Methodist Church. Burial was in the Hazel Dell cemetery.

To add to the sorrow of the Duckworth home after this accident, came word early this morning to Mr. Duckworth of the death of his mother, Mrs. L. H. Zahm of Omaha. The body will be brought to Burlington Junction tomorrow morning and interment will be in Hazel Dell cemetery where her little grandson was buried this afternoon. Mrs. Zahm, with her husband, who survives, resided in Maryville for several years. Mr. Zahm was a traveling salesman for the Wyeth Hardware Company of St. Joseph. Mrs. Zahm was the daughter of George Combs, living near Clearmont.

SIGNS OF SCARLET FEVER IN MORNING VIEW SCHOOL

Dr. Claude P. Fryer, county health doctor, today said that there were signs of scarlet fever in the Morning View school, district number 88, near Parneil. Last week Dr. Fryer was there making examinations and yesterday, Mrs. Grace Bean, county nurse, was there and found the teacher, Gladys Lyle and five children had temperatures. These were all sent home and school dismissed as a preventive measure in case scarlet fever should develop in these cases.

The county is in excellent health in this respect as there are only two other scarlet fever cases under quarantine.

APPROVES SELECTION OF SECRETARY TO ZIEGLER

The selection of Miss Grace Ferritor as secretary to Superintendent I. E. Ziegler was approved by the school board at a meeting held last evening. The board decided they would grant no vacation on account of the State Teachers Meeting to be held in Kansas City within the next two weeks. The teachers salary warrants were allowed and a few other minor matters were discussed.

Red Cross Meeting Postponed.

The regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross has been postponed from Thursday, November 2, to one week later.

SOME SAY H. S. TEAM NOT GETTING ITS JUST SUPPORT

Criticism Has Been Made of Lack of Support and Small Crowds Attending Their Games

Some comment has been made that the high school football team is not this year receiving the support from either the student body or townspeople that it rightly deserves. This seems to be quite evident by the size of the small crowd that was present last Friday to see them trounce Tarkio. The boys have been playing winning football and indications seem to point to another championship team this year.

On Friday of this week the team will play LaFayette High School of St. Joseph here. This St. Joseph aggregation is reported to have a strong team and the home boys will probably need all the support that can be given them. If they clear this hurdle they then have only Trenton between them and another championship. Let's see that the boys get real support for these two games.

BEWARE! HALLOWE'ENSTERS THE COPS WILL BE OUT

City Head Has Appointed Extra Force to Protect Property from Damage By Culprits

If you are going to commit any "devilment" tonight watch out where you commit it and how you commit it or you might be committed to the city jail for no telling how long.

Mayor Robinson will have extra police on duty tonight and these men will be instructed to nab persons caught molesting property.

The names of the extra sleuths who will be added to the force tonight will not be divulged by the plenepotentiary of the government of Maryville but they will be wide awake and on their job.

So it wouldn't be advisable for any of the town cut-ups to try and set back the courthouse clock or to try and steal away with the flag pole because if they do and are caught they will taste bitterly of the cup of punishment. So beware.

Spencer's Declaration Is Regarded as Lure for Wet Republicans to Vote For Brewster

By A. T. Edmonston

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 31—When Conrad Mann, for years a Kansas City brewer until prohibition ruled that "suds" was a contraband beverage, and United States Selden P. Spencer put the "brew" into Brewster through their support of that republican toga gladiator they completely transformed this aspiring nominee into a amphibious candidate with the form of gargoyle in the "wet" spots of Missouri and as arid as the Great American desert in the rustic sections where teetotalers predominate.

The finishing amphibious touches were applied to Brewster a few days ago when Senator Spencer journeyed from Washington to Missouri to spellbind for the "rooster" and in his opening anti-democratic tirade boldly declared that the Volstead enabling act ought to be very materially modified. The assertion, made in behalf of the candidacy of Brewster, was intended to win over the thousands of "wet" republicans who on primary day voted for Sacks, the "gop" advocate of beer and wine but the only effect it had was to thoroughly convince thousands of W. C. T. U. Women that Brewster was now really playing the amphibious role to the extreme and therefore could not be depended upon to keep the teeth in the Federal prohibition amendment.

With the big senatorial campaign coming to a close the end of the week Senator Reed and Brewster will both invade St. Louis City and at rallies there attempt to convince 285,000 electors of both sexes that normalcy and prosperity are utopian dreams unless the senatorial contest goes their way. Brewster, it is stated, will assert openly and boldly, but with the hope that the news does not get out into the state that prohibition in its present form is a failure for the reason, that the Volstead law is entirely too drastic. It is the wish of Conrad Mann that he do this in return for the financial and political support that wealthy retired Kansas City brewer gave him. If the Volstead measure is modified, Mann, it

ALLEN AND WHITE SPEAK ON KLAN

BOTH KANSAS MEN ASSAIL THE ORGANIZATION

MAY BRING RACE WAR

Says Governor in Statement Today at Great Bend, and May Precipitate Race War

Great Bend, Kan., Oct. 31—(Copyright 1922 by the International News Service.) Governor Henry J. Allen in a statement made here today gave his reasons for being opposed to the Ku Klux Klan. In giving these reasons he said:

"The principles upon which the Ku Klux Klan is founded is wrong. It is the law of the mob spirit and furnishes a cloak of secrecy for acts not to be tolerated in this country."

"These acts may not always be committed by members of the organization, but are committed under the cloak of the Klan and makes it impossible for the guilty parties to be brought to justice."

"Every day some man comes to me afraid of the Klan and ask for protection. As retalitory measures multiply, the United States will face the danger of a race war, a curse which has placed a black spot on the history of Ireland. Every man should be permitted entire freedom in his religious life."

Emporia, Kan., Oct. 31—Editor White of the Emporia Gazette, in a statement today assailed the Ku Klux Klan for its acts. He said that their acts are committed under the cloak of terror and inspired under a name to produce conditions that should not be tolerated in a state which believes in law and order.

THE CONTEMPT FOR ECONOMY

If our grandfathers could come back to earth, they would doubtless view with amazement the way their descendants spend money. The old timers were thought to be giving their sweethearts a good time when they took them walking to a neighborhood picnic or went horse-back riding to church Sunday morning. But now the young lady expects the young man to call for her in an automobile and she is exceedingly critical of what kind of a gas wagon it is.

Many parents, in the old days when autos and flying machines were not dreamed of, and when markets for produce and labor were inadequate, not only saved money by walking to church and elsewhere but had their children go without shoes to save leather. Today most every family has a car and in many cases a two or three thousand dollar car will be occupied by one or two persons. The idea of getting up parties to save expense is not to be thought of. The man who walks out with a lady or takes her to the theater and does not also stop at an ice cream or refreshment parlor is always below par in her estimation. There is no more real enjoyment now than in the old days of the husking bee and the spelling school.

The result is that, where men accumulated enough to go into business for themselves on a salary of ten or twelve dollars a week, young fellows now must have five or ten dollars per day and still do not save. The country will never return to the old days. It has outgrown them and conditions have grown up that make the habits of those days no longer practicable but it is not too late to practice some sort of sensible economy. The country must come down to earth again and a greater value must be placed on the dollar if people are to enjoy permanent prosperity hereafter.

The St. Joseph Stock Yards Daily Journal, had the following editorial:

Among our well known and leading men of northwest Missouri, none are more deserving of the confidence and trust imposed in them by the people than is William E. Spratt, Democratic candidate for Congress. Mr. Spratt holds the esteem and confidence of the people to such a degree that he could have almost any office within the gift of the voters for the asking.

He is a business man of fine qualifications and splendid executive ability. Mr. Spratt is prominent in political circles thruout the state, is very popular and has a host of friends among the general public, and he has the best wishes and entire respect of all the people.

His standard of efficiency has been high. True to his lofty principles, honest in his dealings with his fellowmen, and in the closest sympathy with all of his constituents. Mr. Spratt stands out as one who is entitled to be addressed, "well done, good and faithful servant."

A short answer is generally not a soft answer and hence does not turn away wrath.

Miss Lowell Bauer of Westboro and Miss Aline Greeson of Graham, who are students at the State Teachers College, spent the week-end with their parents.

But He Had not Made His Appearance at 4 o'Clock—Was to Inspect New Dormitory.

Lieutenant-Governor Hiram Lloyd was expected in Maryville this afternoon, but up to press time had not arrived as far as could be learned. According to a story in last night's St. Joseph News-Press, Lloyd was to come here to inspect building operations on the new dormitory, and to go from here to Albany to make a speech. President Uel W. Lamkin of the College stated today that he did not know that Lloyd was to visit Maryville.

Mr. Lloyd last night told a reporter of the News-Press that his visit there had no connection with the police muddle. "I have not seen the police commissioners, and so far as I know, they don't know I'm in town," he said.

ARE PREDICTING REED'S ELECTION

is stated, will return to beer brewing and thereby add a million or two more to the vast wealth he now possesses.

When Brewster, was campaigning before the primary he never failed to announce to admiring republicans how bitterly he opposed the League of Nation and every other democratic doctrine promulgated by Wilson during and after the big war. Now when he strikes a democratic community he declares that he is a warm admirer of the last president for his honest endeavor to bring the millenium closer to the world through a League of all nations.

Spencer One "Dry" Now "Wet"

The declaration of Senator Spencer that the Volstead act ought to be considerably modified is regarded as a lure for the votes of the 100,000 former German-American republicans of the state who will vote democratic next Tuesday to reduce taxes, restore normalcy in business affairs and bring back the prosperity of by-gone years when profiteering was abhored and branded as a variety of larceny. This questionable bid for the last German-American votes recalls to mind the patriotic hundred per cent address Senator Spencer delivered on July 4, 1919, in Fredericksburg, Virginia, miles away from Missouri when he had a very different opinion of the Germans as a race of people. Here are excerpts from the article, reproduced verbatum as it appeared in full fifty weekly papers out in the State, after the now defunct but still well remembered St. Louis Republic had given the first publicity to this now historic anti-Teutonic dissertation.

Reed's Big State Vote.

Jackson County, which includes Kansas City, it is predicted, will give Senator Reed a lead of 25,000 over Brewster, and the remainder of the Democratic ticket, will run there nearly as well. The Reed lead in Buchanan County, which includes St. Joseph, will not be less than 3,000. He will carry Platte County by 3,000 and after leaving Kansas City with his big lead there, will easily carry every county down the Missouri river, both sides, to St. Louis County. It is asserted he will enter St. Louis City fully 50,000 votes ahead of Brewster, and then sweep that huge industrial center by 10,000.

The counties of southeast Missouri are expected to pile up a Reed lead of 20,000. This is announced by former Governor Gardner, who spent a week there and in the Ozark regions addressing record-breaking audiences evenly divided between Democrats and Republicans. It is no exaggeration when the assertion is made that fully ninety of Missouri's 113 counties will go Democratic. Cape Girardeau, Greene, Perry, Jefferson, Jasper, Cedar, Dade, Barton, Lawrence, Laclede and Pulaski County are among those which the entire Democratic ticket will sweep. The counties which went Democratic two years ago will easily double their 1920 pluralities next Tuesday.

TRENTON AND GALLATIN TEAMS PLAY TO A TIE

Hard Game Played at Gallatin Saturday—Maryville Team to Play Trenton Nov. 10

Trenton High School and Gallatin High School fought a scoreless tie in a football game held at Gallatin Saturday afternoon. The teams were pretty evenly matched. Both lines were rather weak at times and Trenton gained repeatedly around end and Gallatin hit the Trenton line time and again for gains.

In the first period Gallatin narrowly missed counting when a drop-kick fell short of the goal posts by a foot. Again in the second half on the Trenton 15 yard line Gallatin came near copping the game. A referee's mistake was the only thing that kept Trenton from losing.

Gallatin had worked the ball forty-five yards down the field on line bucks and on the 15 yard line an off tackle play was called. The Gallatin back hit the line and as he did so the ball bounced out of his arms and went rolling toward the goal line. Another Gallatin palyer scooped it up and planted it across the goal line. However when the Gallatin man hit the line of scrimmage the referee blew his whistle. This was where the mistake occurred. The ball was still in motion and he should not have blown it. However all during the game the men had been piling up after the ball was dead and he evidently blew his whistle to avert another pile-up. Just the same it was a boner and it cost Gallatin a victory.

Maryville plays Trenton here November 10. This is the last scheduled game for Coach Lawrence's men and it is the game that attracts the most interest right now. Should the locals win from Trenton and also defeat Lafayette of St. Joseph this week they will have claim for the championship.

SHALL $60,000,000 BE WASTED ON ROADS

It Would Be A Calamity To The State To Build Highways and Not To Maintain Them

One of the most common faults that can be charged to the average State and county highway department is the failure to maintain roads and bridges after once constructed. There seems to be a notion prevailing in the minds of many road officials that when a road is put to grade or has been paved, that it is "premanent" and therefore needs no attention or maintenance. As a result of this practice many sections of roads and many bridges all over the country have been allowed to get in a deplorable condition.

Missouri is just entering on a program of road building, which will, within a few years, mean the investment of $60,000,000 of State funds, twenty or thirty millions of county funds and twenty or thirty millions of Federal funds on our public highways. To invest this immense amount of public funds in roads and bridges and then neglect them and allow them to become in bad repair would be little less than a crime.

To maintain these roads properly will require a large fund. The automobile owners, as a rule, and perfectly willing to pay their present license and if necessary, stand a substantial increase if all the money is invested in good roads and bridges and used to maintain them after constructed.

At the present time there is no adequate State fund to maintain highways. The adoption of Amendment No. 3 will provide this fund. It is therefore important that every voter take notice of the importance of this vote and that he scratch "No" and vote "Yes."

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crowley and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crowley, Jr., of Savannah, accompanied by Lewis Woodcock of Miles City, Mont., visited here last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Karl Zimmerman, west of Maryville, and at the J. K. Sawyers, Sr. home on North Main street. Mrs. Crowley, Jr., is a sister of Mrs. Zimmerman and a niece of Mr. Sawyers.

Halloween, With All Its Mystic Symbols, a Legacy of Olden Times

Upon that night, with fairies light
Beneath the moon's pale beams
There, up the cove, to stray and rove
Among the rocks and streams
To sport that night.
Halloween, Robert Burns.

Garden gates out of place—whirring, rattling rappings on window-panes—ghostly faces—gleaming jack o'lanterns—weird sounds coming from the shadows of the night— these are not mere pranks of adventurous youths on Halloween. They are the embodiment of traditions that have moved the world for thousands of years.

In the lands that are now France and England, in early Rome even, the people once a year watched for the day when witches and ghosts roamed free and untrammeled. Huge bonfires gleamed, as illuminated pumpkins now gleam, in celebration of the mysterious night. And playful children—waiting in vain for the ghosts to do their work—substituted for them then as now.

On next Tuesday evening—the last day of October—masks will appear on the streets once more, and children will revel again in the features of All Hallows Eve. Parties will be held everywhere, and the traditional Halloween games will be played again. Somehow everything in the celebration will be the same as it was last year and the year before, and the year before that. And it will be delightful because it is the same—because it is interwined with the life of the people for almost the entire length of history.

Druids' Autumn Feast.

In early times the Druids, who inhabited Gaul and Britain, held a great feast every autumn in thanks to their Sun-God for crops and harvests. It was a celebration in many ways like our Thanksgiving, but it was featured by great bonfires pointing to the sky, and it was combined with a superstitution that Saman, the lord of death, released on that night all spirits who had been condemned in the past twelve months to inhabit the bodies of animals. Bonfires were still made on Halloween until a few years ago, in almost unconscious memory of the Druid celebrations.

The Romans also held a feast to Pomona, the goddess of fruits and gardens. In their celebration nuts and apples were used; hence the use of nuts and apples in English Halloween sports. In the north of England Halloween is still called Nutcracker night. In Ireland it is known as Oidhche Shamhna, or the Vigil of Saman.

Both of these traditional feast days lasted until the early part of the Middle Ages, when the church established All Hallows Day, and proclaimed All Hallows Eve as a Christian festival. It was taught that prayers for departed spirits who were in purgatory would be of special avail at that time.

The mysteries of the night were not enough for the young people of the world, however, so they added to it the mysteries of love and marriage. For the last two or three hundred years, therefore, Halloween sports have dealt extensively in love tests.

A Test Of True Love.

In England maidens who wished to find if their lovers were faithful had the custom of placing nuts on a grate. By the action of the nuts—whether they burned of jumped or cracked they deduced the true state of their lovers' hearts. It was also a practice to place as many stones as there were people at a bonfire; any stone found displaced in the morning meant death within twelve months for someone.

A more serious effect to look into the future was the custom of eating an apple while looking into a mirror, on Halloween. If one looked steadily and munched the apple noiselessly the picture of one's future husband would appear in the mirror.

Tests for future domestic states sometimes took the form in parties of blindfolding a subject, and leading him to a table where stood three glasses, one filled with clean water, one with mixed water and earth, and the third empty. The subject then placed his finger in one glass—the clean water meant marriage to a beautiful girl; the mixture marriage to a widow; and the empty glass meant bacherlorhood.

Nowadays the forms of Halloween celebrations are falling into disrepute, and there remain only vague, weird memories. But even the smallest children know that Halloween is not an ordinary night—they know there are mysteries there that cannot be fathomed.—St. Louis Star.

Produce Review.

A shortage in the West of special cars used to transport live poultry has had a tendency to shorten arrivals in the central and eastern markets. The lighter receipts have had a steadying effect on market prices.

A good demand exists for dressed poultry, with some surplus over current requirements which is being placed in storage for future use.

The make of butter is about normal for this season and markets, after a little weakness in the middle of the week, are closing on a firmer basis. Higher prices are generally being paid for butterfat throughout the producing sections.

Not enough care and attention are being given to the quality of cream delivered to creameries, resulting in a considerable proportion of butter reaching the market that will not grade as high as it should. Better care and more frequent deliveries of cream will enable manufacturers to produce more top grade butter, and would have a tendency to raise the price of butterfat.

Production of eggs is at a low ebb and prices for fine stock have advanced during the week.

There is still a surplus of storage eggs to be marketed and withdrawals have not been quite as heavy as expected. A continued increased consumption of eggs everywhere is necessary to clear present stocks satisfactorily.

Mrs. Clarence Cook and little son, Jimmie, returned to their home in Kansas City, Kan., Saturday after a several weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Linville, and Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook.

Change Date for Box Supper.

Box suppers were planned for Friday night at both the Lorraine and Eudora schools. When it was found that a conflict had arisen the Lorraine changed their supper to Thursday, so that it will be possible for parties to attend both.

Mrs. Allender to Iowa

Mrs. J. C. Allender left today for Boone, Ia., where she will visit at the home of her son, Dr. Roland Allender, and family. Dr. Allender will join Mrs. Allender the latter part of the week for a few days visit.

Is there anything dearer to the heart of a woman than a fine kitchen range? To witness the crowds at Phares Lumber & Hardware Co., attending the special demonstration of the Majestic Range, one would think not. An expert from the Majestic factory is here for the week, and the way he shows the advantages of the Majestic Range is very interesting. He shows how the Majestic heat-tight construction makes possible the accurate control of the heat while baking and how the linings and hidden construction are such that give long life to the range. It requires no expert to point out the smooth, lustrous finish of the Majestic Range—these speak for themselves. Every purchaser of a Majestic Range is given, free, his choice of two fine sets of cooking utensils.

tion for lawlessness under the former Democratic police regime. He also recalled recent acts of lawlessness in Kansas, attributed to the klan.

"If the governor refused to act, the klan will continue to agitate the question, and it will be a bad thing for the town," the speaker explained. "Of course there is a remote possibility of trouble. No one questions the integrity and standing of the commissioners. But with public sentiment in favor of a change, the klan will take advantage of the situation to build up its prestige and membership."

Dr. W. M. Campbell, exalted cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan here, said he did not believe there would be any violence if the governor failed to remove the commissioners.

"The boys are law abiding citizens, and our organization is founded on observance of law," he said.

Dr. Campbell, who is grand master of the council of Masons for Missouri, asserted that the killing of Nellie Hale was merely "an accident." He said the people wanted the mass meeting, called by the klan at Smith park, and that his organization assumed the leadership.

"There has been bootlegging going on in this city," Dr. Campbell continued. "And a majority of the soft drink parlors have been selling liquor. Opium and cocaine also have been sold. The klan is gathering the evidence now to be presented to the federal authorities.

"We do not believe in mob law, in lynchings, but we believe in upholding the law. We believe also that the officers should uphold the law.

"All kinds of vice has been going on here, and everybody seems to know about it except the officers. Of course everybody has not been able to get the proof, but it is a known fact. The killing of Nellie Hale was only an incident."

PARNELL SHOW PIGS SOLD AND HONORS ARE AWARDED.

Twenty-seven Head Average $24.29—Plans Are Being Made for Next Year's Show

Twenty-seven head of boars and gilts that were exhibited in the Parnell Pig show, were sold at the sale there Saturday for an average price of $24.29, the top price being $46. This price was paid for each of two Duroc-Jersey pigs by George Giesken.

Four breeds were entered in the show, those being the Poland Chinas, Spotted Polands, Durocs and Chester Whites. The affair was very successful and plans were made for next year's show. J. A. Porch was elected director of the Chester Whites for next year, Wallace Kennedy, as director of the Poland Chinas, George Auffert for the director for the Spotted Polands and Jeff Constant as director for the Durocs.

The following are the prize awards of the show: Poland China gilts, John Kennedy, Jr., first and third; Clarence Hutchinson, second. Poland China Boars, Ralph Hinton, first and second and Harold Hinton, second.

In the Duroc class, in gilts, George Giesken first and second, Robert Lyle third. In the boars, Ross Lyle won first and third and George Giesken, second.

In the Chester White class, gilts, Eda Porch won first and second and first on boars and Carl Riley won third on gilts.

In the Spotted Poland Chinas, Harley Garrard won first on gilts, Loren Garrard, second on gilts, Loren Garrard, first on boars and Harold Garrard, second and Harley Garrard, third.

The winners of each class were then brought together and a grand champion was selected. In the gilts this honor went to John Kennedy, Jr., with a Poland China gilt and the champion boar went to Ross Lyle with a Duroc.

SENATOR SPENCER BIDS FOR ST. LOUIS WETS

Yet He Doesn't Want to Offend Country Drys—Question Up to Next Congress.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—The statement issued here yesterday by Senator Selden P. Spencer in which he declared for a scientific commission to determine just what alcoholic content in beer is intoxicating, for the information of congress, in case it should care to make prohibition less "harsh," is designed to soften somewhat the beer opposition to the Republican ticket here in St. Louis.

The statement was given out independent of R. R. Brewster, the Republican senatorial candidate. Coming as it did with both Senator Reed and Brewster here for the final drive for the big vote of St. Louis, the statement forecast what the battle will be—an effort by both sides to get the St. Louis wets without offending the country drys. Both candidates will be watched closely to see how far they go.

The announcement that Senator Spencer will introduce a bill for a commission to pass on the intoxication point of beer means that the prohibition question will be reopened in the next congress in a new fashion regardless of how Missouri votes. Along with his prohibition statement, Senator Spencer challenged Senator Reed to state his views and cease running as a dry in the country and sloppy wet in the city.

The Spencer statement was nearly two thousand words long in explaining his plan to settle the prohibition question. He said the first thing to be recognized was that the prohibition amendment was here to stay and would not be changed; that the day of the saloon was gone, "an accomplishment that is not only fraught with untold blessings to the American home but is generally approved by those who formerly frequented saloons as by those who oppose them." The second proposition, the senator said, was that whatever the existing law is it should be respected and obeyed.

ELMO AND VICINITY

By L. W. James

Mr. and Mrs. John Ecker held a reunion Sunday at the home of their son W. C. Ecker. Amos Miller, son-in-law, of Des Moines, is here visiting now. Mr. and Mrs. Ecker came to their present home in 1870. To this writer's knowledge they have some thirty grandchildren and thirty-nine great grandchildren and no one knows of ever attending an Ecker funeral.

Jack Johnston of New York state is visiting the bedside of his father, W. M. Johnston in Elmo, who is gradually growing worse.

Mrs. Doctor McGinity has bought the 160 acres of land east of her place. Rumor says $175 an acre. A fine house all modern, and a good farm.

The Huff trial begins this week, one hundred miles north of here, and lots of people have to go to Harlan, Ia., to attend it.

The dredge boat on Mill Creek is about one mile north of Dawson, working night and day. They seem to be doing a very good job. They will go on to the railroad bridge, north of Elmo, instead of the wagon bridge, west, as first contracted for.

What has become of the Maryville Broadcasting we heard so plain for awhile. Canned music on the radio has all been canned.

Raymond Knapp and family of St. Joseph visited over Sunday with his mother, Maggie Shelton. It is the first visit of Raymond, Jr., to grandma.

Milt Hooten has taken his daughter to a St. Joseph hospital. She is reported very poorly.

L. E. Adkins bought a new Ford and trimmed it all up with everything a Ford should have on except the drop and a mortgage.

Elmas James is building a new barn on his farm, north of Elmo, for E. Bishop.

J. C. Piper is installing a new radio. This makes four here. The others, Ed Adkins, George Colvin and W. L. James. We get news and concerts from Fort Worth, Tex., and Atlantic, Ga., very plain.

GOOD CROWD SEES HOG-WORM FILMS AT ELMO

Plans Discussed for a Lincoln Township Pig Club—To Perfect It Later

About one hundred people attended the community meeting held at the Abbot Opera House at Elmo last night where County Agent Roy A. Kinnaird, showed the U. S. department of Agriculture hog-worm films, "Exit Ascaris."

At this meeting the possibility of a pig club for Lincoln township was discussed. Fair interest was shown in the suggestion but it was decided that not enough of the people of township were present to perfect an organization. There will be more discussion in the township about it and probably at some later date a club will be organized.

BEARCATS LEAVE TOMORROW TO PLAY STEOPATHS

Will Meet Still College Doctors, But Other Home Games Are More Important

Coach E. H. Maynor of the State Teachers College will take seventeen men with him to Des Moines tomorrow for the game with Still College Thursday. This game was originally scheduled for Friday but owing to the fact that there was a conflict in games at Des Moines, the game will be played Thursday.

The Bearcats will leave Maryville tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in automobiles for Ravenwood where they will catch a train for Des Moines They will arrive at their destination at 5 o'clock.

The game Thursday will be called at 3 o'clock and the team will start on the return trip to Maryville at 7 o'clock. They will arrive at Ravenwood about 11 o'clock and will get in Maryville close on to midnight.

All seventeen men who will make the trip have not been selected yet. Sixteen are almost sure of the trip but the seventeenth will be picked after practice this afternoon. Several men are being watched and tonight's practice will determine the lucky man. The sixteen who are slated to make the trip are: Webb, Allan, Messmer, Akars, England, Palmer, Graham, Hayes, Kirby, Beck, Wilson, Foreman, Leech, England, Thompson and Eaton.

The game with Still does not loom up so bright in the eyes of the College mentor. He is thinking of Warrensburg, Tarkio and Westminster, all conference games and according to a statement today he would rather lose the Still game and come out of it with his players uninjured than to win and maybe have a man or so injured for the rest of the season.

Still is credited with having a rough team and if such be the case Maynor is going to give his subs a chance to show their mettle and save his first string men.

"Rover" Webb, end; and "Hickory" Leech, halfback; who performed so creditably at Cameron last Saturday, are both slightly injured. Webb has a bad knee as a result of the game, and Leech is handicapped with an injured pinion. These men will probably not get to play the whole game although they are doped to start the fracas.

Miller, Bearcat halfback who received a dislocated collarbone in the game with Kirksville earlier in the season, is again out for practice. His shoulder is almost well and Maynor says that he will probably use him in the Warrensburg game. This will be a God-send so to speak for Miller is the only man on the squad who can kick at all creditably. He is also shifty and before he was hurt was responsible for his share of the yardage which the Bearcats gained by scrimmage.

Although unable as yet to get in active scrimmage Miller has been working at kicking and is getting back into form. Besides being a kicker and a nice runner with the ball, Miller can pass well. That makes him a valuable man from the basis of the triple threat. A man who can either kick, run, or pass is an asset to any team.

The practice for the squad this week has been mostly indoors. Yesterday and today the work-out was stiff. Maynor means to keep his men in shape to lessen injuries.

The result of Thursdays game will be posted at the Democrat-Forum as soon as the game is over.

COMMUNITY CHORUS WILL START TUES. NOV. 21

Will Not Begin Tonight as Stated In Last Thursday's Paper—Some Changes In Plans

The Maryville Community Chorus will hold its first meeting this year on Tuesday night, Nov. 21 instead of tonight as announced in last Thursday's Democrat-Forum.

There has been some changes made in the plans for the community chorus this year. Because of the size of the chorus last year and the small size of the room to practice in it has been decided to have the chorus this year composed only of townspeople with the college students to have a chorus of their own.

There will be a box and pie social Thursday evening, Nov. 2, at the Mt. Pleasant school, six and a half miles north of Maryville, beginning at 8 o'clock. A program will be given in connection with the social. Miss Mary Sawyers is the teacher.

DEMOLAY INITIATION WAS HELD LAST NIGHT

M. A. Peery Praises Boys for Their Work—Degree and Patrol Teams To Albany Tomorrow

The annual fall initiation of the Maryville Chapter, order of De Molay, which was held last night at the I. O. O. F. hall was a success from all standpoints. Both degrees of De Molay were conferred on a class of candidates. The degrees were given by the newly organized permanent degree team of the local chapter. This degree team is to have charge of all subsequent degree work.

In speaking of the work of the team M. A. Peery, "Dad" of the De Molays, said "I am proud of the boys. The first degree was rendered well, and the second was given far better than the work was given at St. Louis by the Mother Chapter of Kansas City." This is quite a compliment considering the fact that the Kansas City team is picked from several thousand boys while the Maryville team was chosen from one hundred boys.

Tomorrow the Maryville boys will go to Albany to install a chapter of De Molay. The members of both degree teams and the De Molay drill patrol will make the trip. If the weather clears up the trip will be made in cars, the boys leaving Maryville at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. However if the weather stays bad the trip will be made on the train.

The program for the work at Albany follow:

5 o'clock—Drill by the Maryville patrol captained by H. D. Snyder.

6 o'clock—Banquet served for the Maryville delegation by the Albany boys who will form the new chapter.

7 o'clock—Conferring of the initiatory degree.

8 o'clock—Conferring of the De Molay degree.

After the degree work a dance will likely be given by the Albany boys.

Within the next month the Maryville team will install several chapters. Bedford, Stanberry, Tarkio and other towns have already made application for a temporary charter and will be taken in, in the near future.

When chapters are installed the Maryville team takes with it complete equipment including costumes and properties for both degrees.

RURAL DAY SUGGESTION MADE BY FATHER FELIX

Would Have Parade in Early Fall or Late Spring to Prevent School Interruption

The Rev. Father Richard Felix of Conception, speaking last night at the C. of C., highly commended the men of Maryville who were responsible for fostering the Ruarl School Day. He also said that great credit was due to the country people school children and teachers for making the occasion such a success.

"I would like to make a suggestion for its improvement for next year," said Father Felix, "that it be held either the first week of school in the fall or during the closing week of the school in the spring as a fitting exercise for the closing of the school year. I make this suggestion because of the interruption of school work that it causes. At the time it was held this year, the country pupils had just become settled for the year's work and the interruption by taking their attention and enthusiasm away from their studies retarded their progress." Father Felix expressed his wish that it would be an annual affair and made bigger and better each year.
